President's Message

"Coming Together is a Beginning; Keeping Together is Progress; Working Together is Success."

Edward Everett Hale

Welcome back to another BWA year filled with the promise of seeing long-time friends and colleagues, building new relationships, attending great lunch programs at the Tower Club, all while fulfilling our goal of supporting women through our Scholarship Fund. Our Executive Board is focused on bringing diverse programming this year and we hope you will join us at every one of them. Our first lunch is one not-to-be-missed! Chief Curator and Museum Director Bonnie Clearwater, and Senior Curator Barbara Buhler Lynes will be updating us on all the happenings at the NSU Museum of Art. This is a wonderful opportunity to bring guests and introduce them to BWA. Remember, first-time guests are free of charge! As a follow-up to the presentation, we have reserved Thursday, Nov. 1st for a "Night at the Museum" as our first social event of the year. Mark your calendars now and respond when you get the invitation as space will be limited.

Again this year, we will hold a raffle at each lunch meeting to raise the funds for our scholarships. Please plan to participate in the raffles to support these efforts. We are dependent on BWA member support to make this year a success again. Last year we raised $5,000 through the raffles and cash donations. We welcome raffle items or gift cards valued between $50-$100. Please contact Tracy Carroll to donate.

Membership Renewal time is here as well. Although we are all stretched to our limits with obligations at home, work, and community, we hope you view BWA membership as an important part of your commitments. Donating funds is critical to our success, but we also need your participation! At this time, the Executive Board has a vacancy position for VP Membership. If you are interested in the position, please contact any board member.

Thank you for your continued support of the Broward Women's Alliance mission. We look forward to your continuing membership and seeing you all at our September luncheon.

October 8th Meeting and Program

2018 Voting Highlights

Election time is here! Become informed! BWA member and attorney Lorna Brown-Burton will cover all the information you need to know before you head to the polls in November.

This is yet another critical year where voter turn-out and educated decision making will impact some of the most important issues of our times. The importance of this election year cannot be overstated.

Lorna is a 17th Circuit Representative for the Florida Bar Board of Governors and a part of the Florida Bar Speakers' Bureau that seeks to educate the public on understanding the Ballot Amendments as well as the Judicial Retention and Voting for Judges Process. She will help us uncover the details of the issues on our ballots this coming November. Come to learn how to understand and assess the various proposed legislative amendments especially those "bundled" with proposals you may not like. How do you decipher and then decide?

Join us in what is likely to be our most important meeting of the year on Oct. 8th!

The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society is asking you to "Fall in Love." That's the name of a discount program for Florida residents that begins Sept. 1.

Floridians can participate in the society's activities and see its new exhibits this season at 50 percent off general admission for every visit through Nov. 30.

“Our fall is chock-full of events,” says Patricia Zeiler, executive director of the Fort Lauderdale Historical Society. “I mean, events you won’t experience in any other part of the country.”

Additionally, Florida residents can get 25 percent knocked off the $100 yearly membership, which includes admission to hundreds of participating museums in the United States.

“There are six great museums in a 30-minute drive from our front door,” Zeiler says. “It’s significant museums [in the initiative], and they’re all around the whole country. If you just want to drive to the west coast of Florida or the Keys, there are museums there that are participating in this program.”

The Fort Lauderdale Historical Society is located at 219 SW Second Ave., in Fort Lauderdale. The discounts will be taken off regular general-admission prices, which are $15 for adults, $12 for seniors and $7 for students (through age 22 with a valid student ID). For more information about the “Fall in Love” Florida residents program, call 954-463-4431 or go to FortLauderdaleHistoricalSociety.org.

Here are some events the society has planned.

- Smithsonian Museum Day Live! on Saturday, Sept. 22 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. This is an annual celebration hosted by Smithsonian magazine. Tickets are free and provide admission for two people.

Visit SmithsonianMag.com/MuseumDay/Museum-Day-2018 for details and to register.

- “Juliette Lange: A Portrait of a Mezzo Soprano” exhibit. A members-only preview will begin 6 p.m. Sept. 24. The public opening is Sept. 25. Juliette A. Lange (1882-1977) was a Fort Lauderdale resident who appeared in musical comedies. Lange’s gowns, hats and jewelry will be displayed along with programs and clippings from her days on the stage. The exhibit will become part of the History Museum's permanent exhibits.

- “Ofrendas” (Offerings) Day of the Dead Fine Art

Exhibit on view Oct. 7-Nov. 2. This exhibit shows traditions that surround Mexico's Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead). The New River Inn on the campus of the Fort Lauderdale Historical Society will be the site for showing “ofrendas,” memorials covered in photographs, flowers and favorite items of the dead. A free Family Fun Day is noon to 4 p.m. on opening day (Sunday, Oct. 7). It will feature storytelling, decorating sugar skulls, creating paper flowers and touring the “Ofrendas” exhibition.

- A Community Conversation With the Consul General of Mexico at 6 p.m. Monday, Oct. 29. The conversation will concern historical traditions of Day of the Dead in Mexico. An artifact from the Fort Lauderdale Historical Society collection will be presented to the Consul General for repatriation to its geographic home in Mexico. To RSVP, click here.

- International Day of Archaeology from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Saturday, Oct. 20. Local archaeological experts, including the Florida Public Archaeology Network, will organize activities in designated zones along the New River. Free.

- Florida Day of the Dead Celebration and Exhibit

Closing at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 2. Led by mariachi musicians, this annual skeleton procession is sponsored by Riverwalk, the city of Fort Lauderdale and the Puppet Network and Puppet Guild of South Florida. For more information, go to DayOfTheDeadFlorida.com.

- Celebration Fort Lauderdale's new Walking Tour on the Florida Stories App with a reception at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 23. The app allows users to go through a self-guided tour of Fort Lauderdale and listen to stories at each stop that are accompanied by historic photographs, maps and renderings.

Free.

- “Native American Art Exhibit,” Sunday, Nov. 4 – Monday, Jan. 28, 2019. Fine art, traditional crafts, artifacts, historical texts and more related to Seminole ancestors. A meet the artists event is Sunday, Dec. 2, noon – 2 p.m. Free with admission.

Art and Culture
